VISION & GOALS

The goal of Murtaza Kalender is to play a much larger role in global tourism and to build a structure that brings all continents closer together.

Within this vision, through the TravelShop Booking brand, he aims to grant franchise partnerships to at least 500 travel agencies and DMC companies within the next 5 years, and 2,000 within the next 10 years, creating a powerful global distribution network.

With this infrastructure, the objective is to serve the global tourism industry by offering hundreds of thousands of online tour packages and millions of B2B hotel rates on a single integrated platform, delivering high-value, scalable, and sustainable solutions worldwide.

TODAY

Through TravelShop Booking, more than 10,000 tour packages from nearly 200 countries are now available for fast and seamless online booking. Through TravelShop B2B, he has built a powerful global platform where more than 1.5 million hotels, transfers, and day tours from nearly 200 countries can be easily reserved. Driven by the vision "We connect continents through tourism,"

Murtaza Kalender continues to shape future-ready tourism models by combining destination partnerships, high-value B2B collaborations, and local expertise through his global network of representative offices in 156 countries.

WHY CHOOSE GUINEA FOR YOUR NEXT VACATION?

Diversity of Destinations

Guinea Conakry, located in West Africa, is a country rich in natural resources and cultural diversity, with a population of approximately 14 million people.

The Loos Islands, also known as the Los Islands, are a group of islands located in the Atlantic Ocean, about 7 km from Conakry, the capital of Guinea. This archipelago is made up of several islands, the main ones being Tamara, Kassa, and Roume. These islands are known for their white sandy beaches, crystal-clear waters, and peaceful atmosphere, making them a popular destination for both locals and tourists.

Zimbabwe

Africa's Paradise

THE TOURISM ENVIRONMENT

Zimbabwe is one of the countries helping to drive ecotourism in the region. Ecotourism in Zimbabwe is booming and becoming internationally recognized for providing jobs, it's estimated that the industry now employs around 200,000. Due to the natural beauty and outstanding array of wildlife, there is plenty for those who want to experience ecotourism in Zimbabwe to do. Of course, no trip would be complete without a visit to the magnificent Victoria Falls – visitors can stay in the nearby Victoria Falls Safari Lodge where they will be charmed by the on-site watering hole which attracts a variety of game such as Elephants, Buffalo, Impala and Kudu.

ECOTOURISM SPOTS IN ZIMBABWE

Ecotourism is ethically responsible tourism, showcasing resorts and places of interest in such a way that the community and the environment are not left in a worse off state.

There are a number of Urban spots with deep rooted culture and history.

NATIONAL HEROES ACRE

BINGA BEACH

AFRICAN BUSH CAMPS – BUMI HILLS KARIBA

The African Bush Camps Foundation supports a number of community and conservation projects in the various communities they are operating in. Development initiatives like Health care provision projects and supporting the underprivileged in the community by paying school fees for orphans for example. They also assist with Wildlife conservation and they support organisations like the Bumi Hills Anti Poaching Unit (BHAPU) and other anti-poaching efforts in other parts of the country like Mana Pools.
